Trustees frown on plan for apartments

The village board's "permits, planning and zoning" committee made a recommendation Monday night that the petition of Dr. Edward Abderholden, requesting rezoning of his property at the Antioch Hills subdivision be denied.

Dr. Abderholden is requesting that the property be rezoned from R-1, single family residential, to R-4, two family residential.

The petition had initially been passed by the planning commission. Subsequently, however, it was routed to the village's zoning board, which denies the petition.

The permits, planning and zoning committee's recommendation would concur with that of the zoning board.

THE PROPERTY, WHICH overlooks Lake Antioch and borders a group of high-cost single family units, would be used for the erection of four apartment buildings. This would include one four-flat building and three duplexes.

Mr. Larry Feightner, of L.W. Feightner Land Company, spoke on behalf of Dr. Abderholden. He presented the

A fourth student, Kathy Oddsen, a junior, also attended the workshop.

The students were selected for the workshop on the basis of their work as peer group leaders in the high school.

They will put their knowledge to use in counseling freshman students as part of the peer counseling program. Also, they are available as resource persons.

'Missouri' Cunningham sells business, retires

By LINDA BARNES

After 50 years of service to the greater Antioch community, Mr. Murrill Cunningham of Cunningham Cartage Inc. has sold out his business and retired.

Mr. Cunningham, whose general trucking company has served as the only local cartage company in Antioch, independently began his business in 1928 with one old model T truck. His first location was on Orchard Street in downtown Antioch.

As the business grew and developed, Mr. Cunningham changed the location of his business on a few separate occasions. From Orchard he moved to Park Ave., then to North Ave., and finally to his

10-community police radio network eyed

Efforts are being made for Antioch's Police Department to form co-jointly with 10 surrounding towns a radio network.

The network would be called the North-Western Radio Network of Lake County and its formation would enable the group as a whole to apply for a federal grant.

The federal monies would provide approximately $169,000 and would be met with $30,400 from the towns involved. This would operate at a cost of $3,100 to $4,700 for each town individually.

CONSIDERATION FOR this project would be included in the 1979-80 budget.

Much of the money would be used to purchase radio systems which would be worn by village police officers. This would eliminate officers having to call the police station and compete with other radio bands.

In this way, no police officer would ever have to miss a call, since the entire radio system would be worn on each man.

ACCORDING TO Mr. Chuck Miller, police chief, who presented to the village board the request that Antioch become part of the inter-agency agreement this type of equipment would greatly alleviate Antioch's overcrowded radio systems.

"All 10 towns are trying to push it 100 percent," said Chief Miller, who felt that the formation of the network would greatly help Antioch's Police Department.

development plans for the property, giving his reasons why he felt more apartment buildings were needed in the community.

"Therefore," Mr. Feightner concluded, "we feel that the village could use some very high-class townhouses."

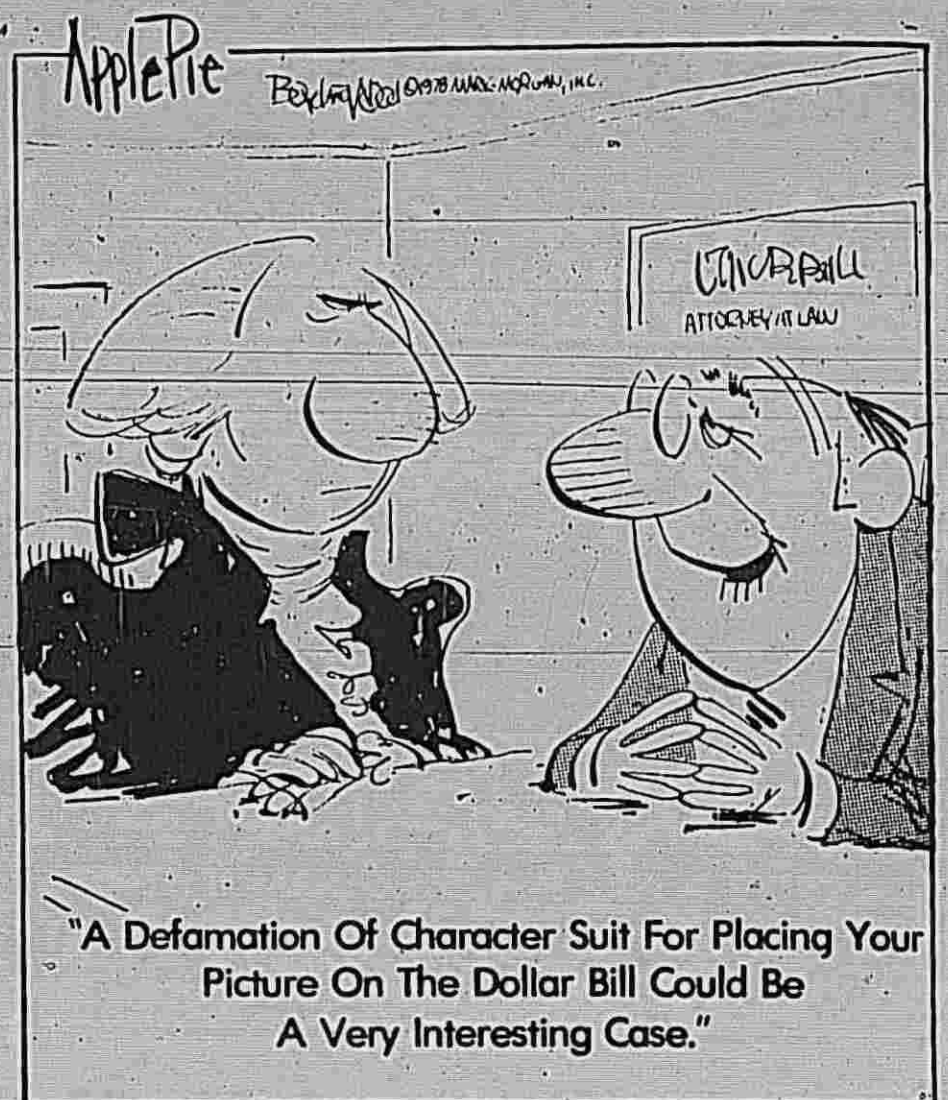

A NUMBER OF RESIDENTS from the Antioch Hills subdivision are not in favor of the construction of apartment buildings in their area.

Mr. Alan R. Knutsen, of Lakeview Terrace, spoke on behalf of these residents. He protested a rental-type of situation where residents would not be financially involved with the community and which, he felt, would depreciate the value of expensive single-family homes in the area.

Additionally, he stated that the area's land topography would be altered and traffic congestion would be accentuated with new apartment dwellers.

The board will formally vote on the petition at its next meeting, Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Village, township to cooperate on parks, programs

An agreement regarding the use of Antioch's parks and programs was presented last night to the village board by Mrs. Susan Koppa, park and recreation coordinator.

The agreement, still in the process of being revised and clarified, was presented with the idea of receiving comments and considerations from the village trustees.

The agreement involves the village of Antioch, Antioch's park commission and Antioch township and has been drawn up in an attempt to foster a co-operative program between the village and township with respect to parks.

A major area of discussion among board members revolved about the question of who would assume responsibility for the maintenance and upkeep of present and future park grounds.

Following discussions, Mrs. Koppa stated that the final composition of the document would be made first with the township and then with village attorney Andrew Lynch.

present location on route 173.

"YOU HAD TO KEEP growing with the times," said Mr. Cunningham, who moved to Antioch from Missouri at the age of 9 with his parents. His nickname around town was "Missouri" Cunningham, and he was so well liked and respected that he was mayor of the village for eight years.

A retirement dinner was given last Saturday night for Mr. Cunningham at the Country House restaurant. Sixty of his closest friends and relations were present at the affair.

MR. CUNNINGHAM HAS SOLD his equipment, property and permits and has disbanded the business entirely. The property has been sold to H.O.D. Waste Management, Inc.

Mr. Cunningham has had a long history of active community participation. He served as a volunteer fireman for 25 years. He was a trustee on the village board for 10 years and then served as mayor for eight years.

"I'VE GOT TO SAY it's been a very, very successful business - with the help of my wife and two sons who've stuck with us and worked hard," said Mr. Cunningham.

"Antioch and the community have been real good to us. It's a town of golden opportunity," he said.

Formula To Find Calorie Need

Do you need to lose weight?
If you do, you are not alone.

One out of every five Americans is toting more pounds than he or she should, says a pamphlet from the American Medical Association.

And you can forget all of the books and magazine articles about losing weight without dieting. The only way to take in your belt or slip into that pantsuit again is to eat less and exercise more, the AMA points out.

But, no matter how much you exercise, you can't just shake it off. An inescapable exercise is turning your back on food and repeating many times a day the word "no!"

First, find out what you should weigh. There are charts that will give you a general idea. Because no two persons are exactly alike, there are no ideal, absolute weights. But you can find your approximate ideal weight, give or take five or ten pounds.

Calories do count. If you eat more calories than your body can use in its normal, daily activity, the excess is stored in fat. Most people leading moderately active lives need 15 calories per pound to maintain their desired weight. If you want to weigh 150 pounds, you can consume food containing no more than 2,250 calories each day—150 x 15 equals 2,250.

If you're above the desired weight, you must consume less than the total calories per day needed to maintain present weight. You needn't go hungry. Just eat more low-calorie foods and shun the gravies, creamed dishes, rich desserts, fried entrees, and liquor. Eat slowly and fill up on carrot sticks, leafy vegetables, radishes, consommés, and most fresh fruits. Get a calorie counter booklet and plan your diet menus around it.

There are approximately 3,500 calories in each stored pound of fat. To lose one pound a week consume 500 fewer calories each day than if you were already at your desired weight. If you want to lose two pounds each week, cut the calories back by 1,000 each day. It is usually unwise to try to lose more than two pounds per week. If you are more than 10 pounds overweight, see your family doctor before launching any do-it-yourself diet.

No, suicide isn't the answer

By JERRY PFARR

When people you have befriended begin appearing at social events, such as golf outings and softball games, wearing T-shirts like the one pictured here ... well, a person might contemplate suicide.

Luckily, someone who is still a friend of mine, Sue Nasenbeny, gave me the book "Without Feathers," by Woody Allen, so I know something about the subject.

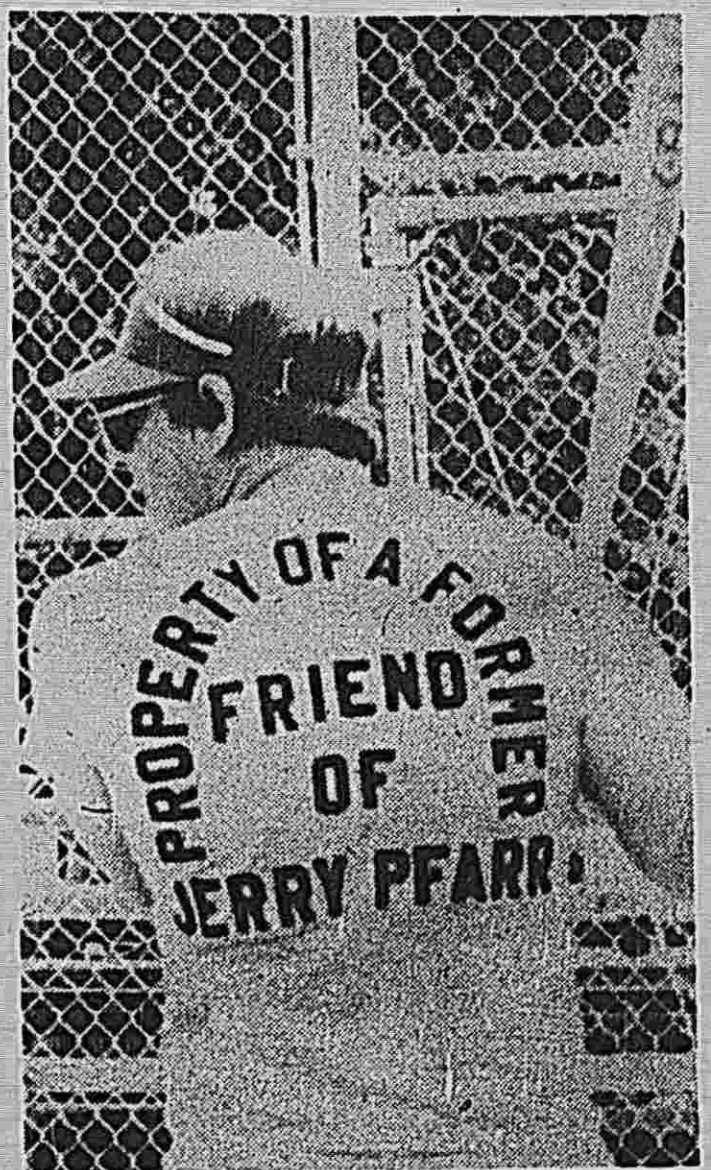

"Once again I tried committing suicide," says Woody Allen on page 8 of his book. "... this time by wetting my nose and inserting it into the light socket. Unfortunately, there was a short in the wiring, and I merely caromed off the icebox."

"I RAN INTO MY brother today at the funeral," Woody Allen continues. "We had not seen one another for 15 years, but as usual he produced a pig bladder from his pocket and began hitting me on the head with it. Time has helped me understand him better. I finally realized his remark that I am 'some loathsome vermin fit only for extermination' was said more out of compassion than anger. Let's face it: he was always much brighter than me - wittier, more cultured, better educated. Why he is still working at McDonald's is a mystery."

"WHAT IS IT ABOUT death that bothers me so much?" asks Woody Allen. "Probably the hours. And after death is it still possible to take showers?"

"Do I believe in God?" he asks. "I did until Mother's accident. She fell on some meat loaf, and it penetrated her spleen ... Why was this woman in the prime of life so afflicted - because in her youth she dared to defy convention and got married with a brown paper bag on her head? And how can I believe in God when just last week I got my tongue caught in the roller of an electric typewriter? I am plagued by doubts. What if everything is an illusion and nothing exists? In that case, I definitely overpaid for my carpet. If only God would give me some clear sign! Like making a large deposit in my name at a Swiss bank."

That's enough of Woody-Allen for now, but if you like that sense of humor which as Newsweek said, "manages to make us laugh out loud until we make fools of ourselves," you should buy the paperback, "Without Feathers."

I HAVE ALWAYS prided myself on my ability to select friends and make enemies. You have to be very selective, because you can judge a man by his enemies, too.

I would think some more about suicide, except I want to hang around and see what my former friends are going to do for their next act. It should be hilarious.

Somebody figured it out—we have 35 million laws trying to enforce ten commandments.

With the thought that summer is nearly over and the knowledge that you didn't get the most out of it, how's this for cheering you up ... only 16 weeks before Christmas.

Just think, in less than three months we can be slushing through the snow, trying effortlessly to start the used car we knew wouldn't make it through another year and getting frostbite taking the dog out for a walk.

ANOTHER NEW FACE at Rittenhouse and Embree ... Mike Brooks is the new member of the talented lumber yard crew who can help you with your building needs. His picture which accompanies their ad doesn't do him justice. He really doesn't look quite so stern.

While we're on the subject of Rittenhouse and Embree, I'd like to remind everyone about their 4th annual "Grand Slam Sale." The sale will continue for two weeks with great buys on many home improvement necessities such as insulation, paint, paneling and some flood damaged items (brought to you courtesy of Antioch's recent thunderstorm).

The savings is reason enough to shop at the lumber yard, but the reason for the sale being called "Grand Slam" is that customers can register at the store (315 Depot St.) and possibly win a trip to either Las Vegas, Acapulco, Orlando-Disney World or Mexico City. The winners will be selected at a later date in the unique contest.

Birinda Johnson has been named Antioch director of the Chain-of-Lakes Senior Services, which has its office at 848 Main St.

The office, sponsored by the Lake County Chaplaincy Service, has two phone numbers: 395-5161 and 395-5162.

Chain-of-Lakes Senior Services is a program which began in July, 1975 to assist senior citizens in staying in their own homes and familiar surroundings.

Any senior citizen, age 60 and over, is eligible for the following services:

Transportation: To assist senior citizens in getting to doctor appointments, shopping, and various social functions. Appointments must be made at least one day in advance. There is no fee for this service, however, they do ask for donation.

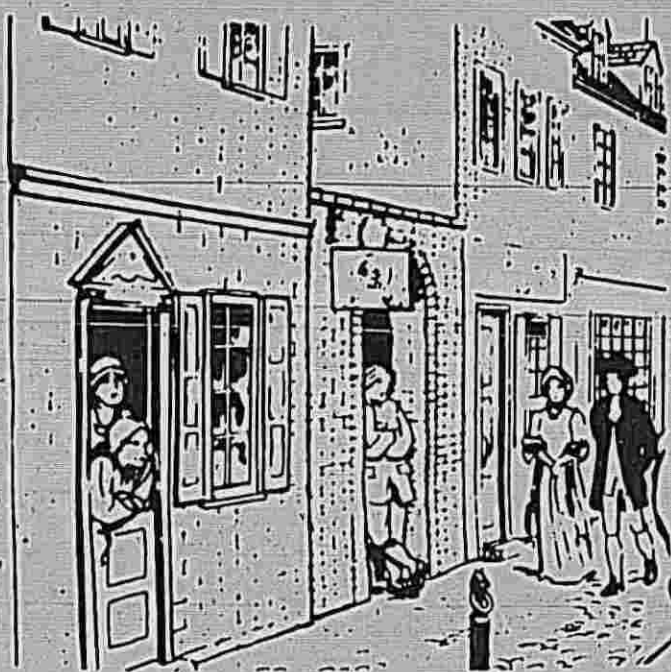

Meals-With-Wheels: To provide homebound seniors a hot nutritious lunch, five days a week. In some instances special supper and weekend meals are available.

Telecare: To call older persons at least five days a week, to check on them to see if they are all right, and to provide an opportunity to socialize.

Outreach: To locate isolated senior citizens who need services but are not receiving them.

Friendly visits: To visit those who want and need more companionship.

ANTIOCH'S MOONLIGHT Madness was a success as usual. The cool summer evening drew crowds of people hunting for bargains and enjoying the entertainment provided by the Waukegan Moose Club clowns.

Three used cars were raffled off, but only one was available for inspection. Mark Pittman donated a super good-looking Catalina from Pittman Pontiac. I'm sure it enticed the browsers to take a chance. We were busy selling tickets all evening.

Allendale receives new Christian flag

Although Allendale in Lake Villa is not a religiously affiliated school, it is very proud of its chapel.

The facility, known as the Farwell Chapel, has played an important role at Allendale for many years under the direction of Mr. Clifford Jones.

Cliff is currently retired from Allendale, after having served for 40 years as its music director, religious leader and assistant director.

Therefore, it was fitting that Mr. Jones would be the school representative when the Womens Auxiliary of the Lake Villa VFW Post presented Allendale with a new Christian flag.

The flag, white with purple and red satin material, is 4 feet by 6 feet in size. It is replacing a church flag that has been in the chapel since 1927.

"THIS COMMUNITY PROJECT is only one of the many that the women's auxiliary has completed," said Mrs. June Savage, president of the group.

Some of their other projects have been to assist the Lake County Unit of the American Cancer Society, various child welfare groups, and providing gifts and money to Gateway House in Lake Villa.

One of the major projects is to coordinate a variety of activities with the North Chicago Veterans Hospital. These include the collecting and delivering of books, magazines, clothing, personal items, coupon books and gifts. They also assist the rehabilitation department with many volunteer hours.

A DIFFERENT TACK

I overheard a neighbor's five-year-old telling another child about her visit to the county fair. I had to chuckle when I heard her explain, "There were some ponies there and I rode one. He was so big I couldn't reach the pedals!"

July 1, 1909, the informal opening of the United States Naval Training Station, which is under construction at Lake Bluff, just south of North Chicago, is scheduled to take place. It is the intention of the engineers to open the barracks to at least sixty recruits at the time.

If present plans carry, an improvement will be made in the lakes region near Antioch which will cost from $40,000 to $50,000. If the plan carries, it will be possible to enter a boat near the depot in Antioch and proceed directly to the lakes to the west, from whence the boat may go down Fox River to McHenry and other points or north to Wilmet and other places of interest. Of course access to those points by boat is now possible, only, however, after one drives to Lake Marie, west of the village.

Al Minderman attends I-H seminar

Al Minderman of Nor-Mal International, Inc., Antioch, participated in a management training program in Bettendorf, Iowa.

Service Management Specialists from International Harvester conducted the three-day meeting.

"A farmer's need for fast parts and service has not gone unnoticed by agri-business," Minderman said.

"The training of dealer service representatives and the development of programs aimed at meeting the needs of customers are getting lots of attention these days at International Harvester," he added.

"Our goal is to hold customer downtime to a minimum," said Tom St. John, manager of parts and service marketing for International Harvester's Ag Equipment Group.

"If our service centers in dealerships are more efficient, that gets our customers back into the fields faster and helps our dealerships as well," he said.

During the sessions, participants used a computer terminal to test alternatives aimed at improving the IH dealer service center operations. The terminal is part of the IH national computer network.

bringing up baby

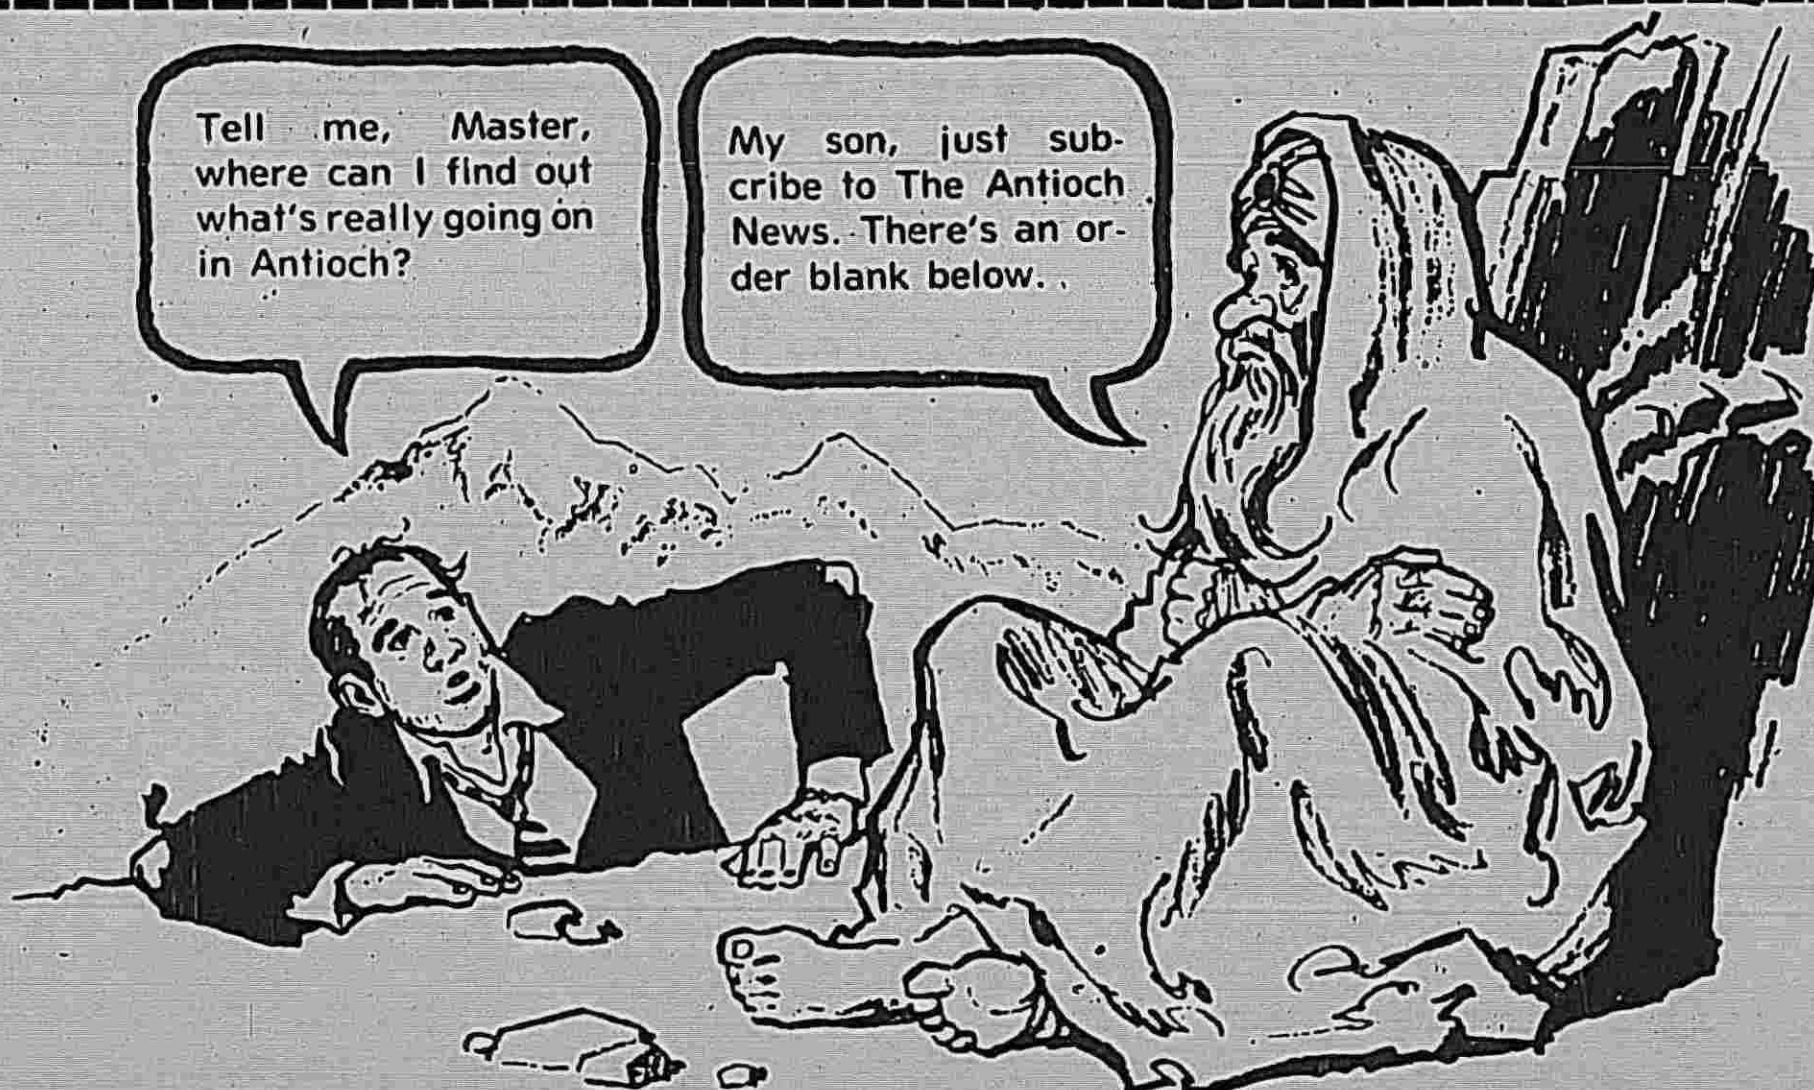

By Mrs. Dan Gerber

How much food does a baby need? The amount of breast milk or formula and food a child requires depends on many factors such as size, activity and rate of growth.

During the first year growth is rapid, food needs are high and baby's appetite is usually good. After the introductory stage, a baby will generally eat 1/3 to 1/2 a jar of a new strained food per meal. An older baby, especially a very active one, may eat a full jar.

Parents should be forewarned, however, that a baby's rapid growth does not continue. Sometime around that important first birthday, you may notice that your baby wants less to eat. Don't worry about this. This drop in appetite is a natural way to adjust food needs.

PM&L announces its 'lineup' for the coming season

Antioch's PM&L Theatre has announced its Season 18 schedule.

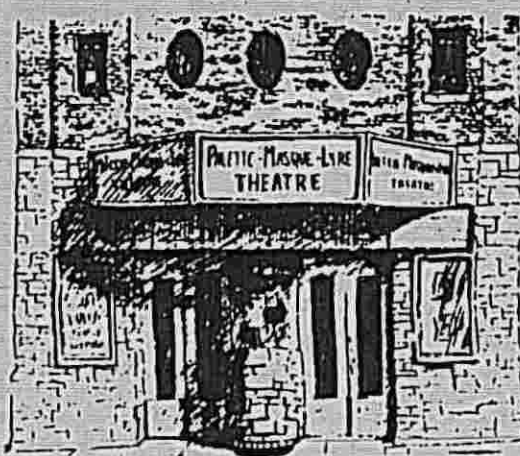

"Have we got a season for you!" said president Ken Smouse. "Dan Zeff recently said in one of his columns that if a community theatre survives five years it is somewhat of a miracle - so at this moment PM&L is reaching for at least 20!"

The hilarious Woody Allen comedy "Play It Again Sam" opens the season on Oct. 7, 13, 14, 20 and 21. Don Beveroth directs and curtain time is 8:30 p.m. The fanciful "Androcles and the Lion" by George Bernard Shaw will go on stage Dec. 2, 8, 9, 15 and 16.

A musical mystery comedy, "Something's Afoot," will cause everyone to die laughing on Feb. 10, 16, 17, 23 and 24, Smouse said.

The tender "I Remember Mama" is scheduled for Apr. 21, 27, 28 and May 4 and 5.

A passionate tale of love and romance by Lillian Inge,

"Picnic," will end the season on June 9, 15, 16, 22 and 23.

Season tickets are $12.50. Regular box office prices for the five shows would total $15.50.

To order tickets send a check, along with name, address and phone number, to PM&L, Box 23, Antioch, IL 60002. Tickets will be mailed to you after Oct. 1.

"For reservations or further information call 395-3055," Smouse said.

'The child is father to the man ...'

By LINDA BARNES

Kids have such a direct, incisive way of exposing our follies.

Seemingly innocent, their tone belies a certain common sense wisdom which either tickles us or angers us, depending on how deeply they strike... and how defensive we are.

I know a social worker, presently not doing social work, who was asked, rather pointedly, by an intelligent 9-year-old boy,

"Are you ever going to do social work again?"

The social worker answered, "Why yes - some day I hope to."

POSSESSING AN obviously practical mind, the 9-year-old then wanted to know if the social worker would get paid for his work.

The social worker answered that, of course, as all of us adults know, social workers are paid.

This induced within the child a great feeling of wonder and surprise, and he replied, "You mean you get paid for being nice?"

The boy's playmate, obviously possessing a very logical mind, thereafter exclaimed, "I'm nice to people all the time and nobody pays me!"

NOW, I'VE ALWAYS felt that social workers, as well-meaning as you could find, had filled the gap in our modern society for a good, sincere, caring friend.

And, as with friends, the better he could listen and the better he could feel for the other person, the better a social worker he would be.

Our 9-year-old, in all of his innocence and all of his wisdom, seemed to succinctly point out a very curious aspect of our constructed world, on which, viewed from the eyes of the natural child seemed somewhat absurd.

His perspective was to me humorous, refreshing and provoking.

THIS TALENT of youth which enables them to so effortlessly bring to light our follies induces us to examine our own perspectives.

Perhaps this is why life has given them this gift. Our self-renewal is dependent upon them for insight and direction.

They are spokesmen for the onward thrust of life. And we are as much a part of that thrust as they.

An excellent event, held annually here, is the Rotary Club's luncheon for new school teachers coming to town.

Pictures appear elsewhere in today's paper.

Guests of the Rotary Club, at the Country House last week, were the new teachers and their bosses.

John Kakacek, superintendent of the Emmons School district, quipped:

"I always try to hire at least one new teacher so I don't miss this event."

ART BLECKE, of Antioch High School, introduced himself as:

"Art Blecke, principal... sometime golfer."

Rev. Steve Williams of the Rotary Club said he will suggest making Warren Polley, superintendent of the high school district, an honorary Rotarian for all the things he manages to do to help the club... even though Warren can't get free for those wonderful Thursday noon luncheons at Vince Palla's Brave Bull restaurant.

BILL BARR SUPPLIED boutonnières for all the lady teachers attending.

The superintendents and principals once again were praised by the Rotarians for managing to hire so many pretty women.

JACK SIEGMEIER HAD a birthday yesterday, Aug. 29. But he's still younger than I am. Hear tell Jack had 30 candles on his cake.

A GENTLEMAN stopped me on Main Street Monday, and said, "I have a one-liner for you.

"The Maytag repairman is no longer the loneliest man in the world. It is now the RTA bus driver."

"Great works are performed not by strength but by perseverance."

Vandalism to sawmill: 6 arrested

Recent vandalism at the Antioch sawmill has been solved by the juvenile arrest of six local teenage boys.

Police Chief Chuck Miller said Tuesday that the boys are charged with criminal damage to property.

The damage was done to the split-rail fencing by the sawmill and window breakage at the Antioch Scout House on Main St.

"Restitution and further action is being taken through the cooperation of the boys' parents," Miller said. "They will pay for the damage and additional action is still pending."

"Without the cooperation of the parents the possibility of a court action would be sought," he added.

Chief Miller said the boys were caught through the investigation of Lt. Tom Fisher and Sgt. Charles Watkins, assisted by officer Stan Revell. They received an anonymous phone call describing the boys, the vehicle used and the exact time of the incident. Further investigation led to the arrest of the six juveniles.

The parents cooperated to speedily clear up the case, Miller said. There is still investigation going on regarding some prior cases of vandalism at the sawmill, he added.

"We're making a special effort and charges will be brought against anyone connected with vandalism at the sawmill," police chief said.

The Jaycees' Corner

By BILL ANDERSON

The Antioch Jaycees have become an increasingly active force in the community of Antioch.

They provide a major source of income for the Viking junior football program, obtained the playground equipment for Doc Jensen Park, sponsor a Little League team, and they entertain deserving youth on their annual Cubs trip.

The Jaycees also assist in youth services of Antioch's parks and recreation department, conduct leadership training for selected high school sophomores, and are involved in many charities, such as juvenile diabetes, muscular distrophy, the American Cancer Society and a crippled children's camp.

THE ANTIOCH JAYCEES would like you to be one of their special guests at an evening of fun, free beer and snacks.

If you are between the ages of 18 and 35, we are holding a special meeting to explain in more detail what the Jaycees are doing in Antioch and for young men.

The meeting will be held at the Brauhaus, west on route 173, on Tuesday, Sept. 19, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

If you have any questions or would like more information, phone Bill Anderson, membership chairman at 356-5376, or Ron Van Scoyoc, president at 395-4000.

"UNITED WE GROW" is this year's theme for the Illinois Jaycees in 383 communities across the state.

Drug abuse, environmental improvement and a variety of youth activities are a few of the programs in which more than 400,000 Jaycees nation-wide are working to bring to their communities.

Trapshooting a major participant sport

By JIM KNIGGE

Like many shotgunners, my first experience at "trapshooting" was shooting at targets thrown from a hand trap.

A versatile hand-held thrower produces a variety of target situations to simulate game movements and prepare the hunter for field shooting. This type of shooting is also a convenient way to familiarize yourself with a newly acquired shotgun.

Informal shooting at clay targets is a lot of fun and is enjoyed by thousands of midwest sportsmen every year, however, this is target shooting and should not be confused with organized trapshooting. Trapshooting is rapidly becoming a major participation sport in this country.

EARLY VARIATIONS of trapshooting have been recorded in England in the 18th century. Trapshooting dates back about 100 years in the United States and the beginning days of the sport bearly resemble the events and equipment of modern trapshooting.

In the mid 1800's live birds were used as targets and released, on call of the shooter, from a trap, from which the name is derived.

Glass balls were substituted for the live pigeons in the 1860's and the first "clay" targets were used about 1880. Targets today are made from an asphalt pitch base material, weigh a little over 3 ounces and are four and five-sixteenths inches in diameter.

The trap field (see drawing) consists of a trap, trap house and five shooting positions or stations. The shooting stations are located 16 yards behind the trap house and are 3 yards apart. The target is thrown at a constant vertical angle but may vary as much as 47 degrees to the left or right of the center of the field.

THE GUNS USED by the trapshooters in the early days of the sport were often the same ones they used for hunting. As the sport developed it became apparent that there was a need for specialized trap models. Modern trap guns are fitted with raised ventilated ribs, special chokes and stocks that are higher and straighter than field models.

The popularity of trapshooting has skyrocketed in the last few years. Each year new clubs are being built and existing ones are adding to their facilities. There are an estimated 275 clubs in Illinois and Wisconsin that have trap fields and hold a variety of organized shooting events.

These clubs are doing an excellent job of promoting the sport and offer programs to attract the novice as well as the seasoned shooter.

The traditional "turkey shoot" is especially popular in the late summer and fall because it gives the hunter a chance to clear the cobwebs off the old shotgun.

The Lions Club Safari Trap Shoot is just such an event. To be held Sunday, Sept. 10, at the Northern Illinois Conservation Club, the Safari shoot offers all the fun of trap shooting plus a chance to warm up for the hunting season.

Saturday is 'Kickoff Day' in Antioch

Antioch High School's football season starts on Saturday, Sept. 9, with an interesting home game against Hoffman Estates.

But the fun really begins this coming Saturday, Sept. 2, when Steve Wapon, the new head varsity coach, holds the Sequoits' first "football Kickoff day."

Kickoff day starts at 9 a.m. and lasts until nearly 4 p.m. It includes all facets of the community's football program.

WAPON HAS ARRANGED for the Antioch Vikings, grade school players who hope to be Sequoits someday, to hold scrimmages at 9:30 and 10 a.m. Photographers will start snapping pictures at 9 a.m. when the Vikings appear on the field in full uniform.

Picture taking sessions will follow throughout the day for freshmen, sophomores and high school varsity players, followed by the cheerleaders, colorguard, pom-pom girls and the Sequoit marching band.

High school freshmen will scrimmage at 10:30 a.m. and sophomores at 11:30. A kickoff day program is scheduled at 1 p.m. and then the varsity scrimmage begins at 2 p.m.

THE ALL-DAY INTRODUCTION to Antioch's football program should attract fans to the high school field. The concession stand will be open from 9:30 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Wapon sees "kickoff day" as a way of introducing fans to the groups involved and getting them a little excited about the season.

SEASON PASSES, GOOD for the Sequoits' five home games, are now being sold. An adult pass costs $6 (the normal price of four games) and includes a plastic I.D. card for convenient entrance to the home games. It also includes a free "bumper" and "spirit" sticker. Season pass holders will have first priority to purchase state playoff tickets for any games in which Antioch might participate.

A student pass for the five home games costs only $3 and includes the same privileges described in the paragraph above. Applications for season passes are available at the high school.

The five home games, all on Saturday afternoons, are against Hoffman Estates Sept. 9, Woodstock Sept. 16, Lake Zurich Sept. 30, Wauconda (homecoming) Oct. 21 and Grant Nov. 4.

AFTER NON-CONFERENCE games at home against two tough foes, Hoffman Estates and Woodstock on Sept. 9 and Sept. 16, the Sequoits hope to be ready for a seven-game conference schedule which begins Sept. 22 at Warren.

THE PLAYERS' MOMS helped make a success of last week's Antioch High School varsity football camp. They purchased, prepared and served lunch all week long. Enjoying being waited on were Maryin

Blue Herons bring majesty to Chain of Lakes area

By LINDA BARNES

In various nature preserves, around the Chain-of-Lakes region, live the beautiful blue herons.

They are a majestic bird, soft and noble, with long, delicate, curving necks and wide, broad wings.

They provoke a lovely, moving image as they gracefully wing across the horizon in measured, steady strokes. Their slate-blue color seems at times to delicately combine with the blue of the sky, in a marriage of color and form.

Blue herons are fish-eaters. They have voracious appetites and always seem to be in search of food. They sometimes travel several miles from their nests looking for good feeding grounds.

FREQUENTLY, THEY can be seen wading along swamp and lake shores watching for fish, insects, or frogs, their main sources of food.

Food is seized by rapid, straight thrusts of the pointed bill.

Blue herons feed independently, but build their nests in large colonies. Often these colonies number into the hundreds.

The nests are built in small trees and bushes in isolated ponds or swamps. They are constructed of tree limbs, twigs and dry grass and are large and bulky in appearance.

BREEDING OCCURS during the spring season. Usually, three to six eggs of blue or greenish-blue color are produced.

At birth, the young are covered with white down, which is later replaced by white feathers. At two years, they assume the blue plumage of adulthood.

Blue herons are one of the few birds who mate and rear their young while yet clothed in their feathers of youth.

Blue herons have two natural enemies: water moccasins who climb into trees and swallow the eggs and alligators who eat the young when they fall.

In the autumn, the herons fly south and we must wait through the winter to enjoy once again their dignified, noble, statuesque presence on our lakes.

Swim team ends
summer season
breaking records

By CAROL BERRY

The Antioch Swim Team, sponsored by the State Bank, wound up its 1978 summer season with the annual "record-breaker" meet and party.

Twelve broken records were the result of the meet. Smashing three records apiece were Sue Harrison, Shelly Volling, George Bessette and Sheryl Harrison, while double record-breakers were Kaky Kelly, Phil Jaworek and Trina Spietz.

Single record setters were Dave Volling, Melissa Peterson, Rafi Wilkinson, Margaret Ivy and Julie Konchan. Ann Ivy tied a previous record in her one-length breaststroke event.

After the record-breaker, the swim team party began with food and fun for all. Thoroughly stuffed with bar-b-que and cake, the swimmers gathered around head coach Marty Berry to receive their swim team patches and ribbons.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION went to the most improved swimmers of each group as they were presented with decorative medals. Kim Zamudio and Russ Ivy led the 8 years and under age group in improvement while Melissa Garland and Brian Wogsland won the awards for the 9 and 10 year olds.

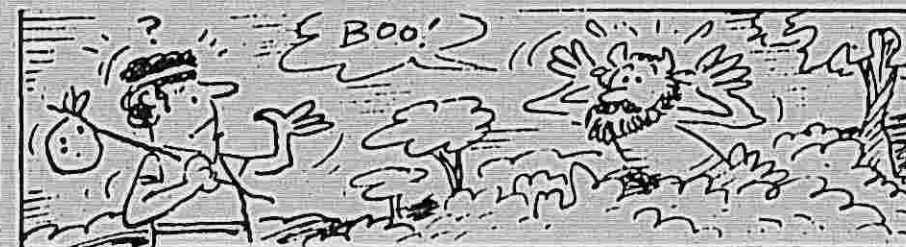

Improvers in the 11 and 12 age group were Kerry Kelly, Ann Ivy and Garrett Fleming, and for the 13 and 14 age group it was Liz Ammar, Mary Ann Wawro and Mitch Kruezak.

Mary Fleming and Bob Sutton received the awards for the 15 and 16 age group.

Golfers get ready for Antioch Open

A sizeable field is expected to tee off Sunday, Sept. 10, when the third annual Antioch Open men's golf championship begins at Spring Valley Country Club.

The deadline for entries is Friday and, as of Tuesday, 40 golfers already had signed up.

Last year the tournament attracted 70 contestants. Since most of the entries pour in during the last few days before the deadline, that number should be exceeded this year.

ENTRY BLANKS ARE available at Spring Valley and at the Antioch News, 952 Main St. There also is a blank in today's paper.

Starting times for the Sept. 10 round will appear in next Wednesday's (Sept. 6) issue of the Antioch News.

The tournament is for golfers who live or work in the townships of Antioch, Lake Villa and Salem.

For $15, the men (16 and over) get to play 36 holes of tournament golf. There are three trophies in each of the three flights and the top finishers in each division also receive attractive prizes.

The three flights are championship (for those who average in the 70s), Class A (for those who average in the 80s) and Class B (for those who shoot in the 90s).

The golfers will play 18 holes on Sunday, Sept. 10, beginning at 11 a.m. Pairings will be made at random. Then, the second 18 holes will be played on Sunday, Sept. 17, with pairings made according to the scores shot in the first round.

SPRING VALLEY IS a good test of tournament golf. The 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th holes on the front nine could be put on any championship course in the country. But the toughest hole, many feel, is on the back nine - the 15th ... a 435-yard par four that doglegs to the right and is beautifully bordered by trees.

The 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th holes are a demanding stretch of golf and they leave most players happy to emerge from the par-35 front nine with a score of 39 or 40.

The two finishing holes, the 9th and 18th, are picturesque. They contribute to Spring Valley's reputation as one of the best and most interesting tests of golf in the area.

ALTHOUGH ONLY ABOUT half of the eventual field has entered so far, some of last year's stars are returning.

Rich Higgins, who placed second in the championship flight in 1976 and fourth last year, will be one of the top contenders in that field. Ed Behne, who was sixth last year, also has entered - along with his son, Dave, who works in the Spring Valley pro shop.

Dennis Korjenek Sr., who won the Class A flight last year with rounds of 78-77, is moving into the championship flight this year. Ed Karls, fifth in Class A last year, also is entering the championship bracket.

Jon Lasco, who was second in Class B last year, is in Class A this time.

Entries received as of Monday included:

Championship flight: John Wagner, Rich Higgins, Dennis Korjenek Sr., Jerry Pfarr, David Behne, Ed Behne, Ed Karls.

Class A: John Hedberg, William Jacobs, Tom Lasco, Dean F. Schultz, Jon Lasco, William Nauman, Art Bleeke.

Big weekend of speed in Waukegan

Waukegan Speedway will host its final weekend of speed this Labor Day, Sept. 1 through 4.

Kicking things off will be Shepard Chevrolet's Family Night on Friday. The hobby stocks will be going for double-championship points and their trophies will be awarded after the races.

Alex Petropoulos leads John Sternberg by 18 points going into the last night.

A 4-wheel drive pull, "Beat Your Neighbor" racing, wheel-barrow races, tire rolls, Big Wheel races and more will be on tap at reduced admission prices.

Saturday the late model Old Milwaukee Beer twin-25's will end the points for them. Don Collins of Antioch enjoys a comfortable lead, however, Tom Homan and Danny Brown are battling for second with a number of other top 10 spots subject to change with double-championship points available.

Late model drivers will receive their trophies after the races. A wet T-shirt contest will be held.

Sunday will be Bay Darnell Night along with the super-modified Pepsi-Cola twin-25's for double-championship points. Bob Robel has a comfortable lead going into the final night.

Monday will feature late models, hobbies and a demolition derby.

For the two weeks after this coming weekend, racing will be on Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons.

19th hole

The Antioch Lions Club's annual golf and tennis outing at Abbey Springs was a huge success, as usual, although one member of the club admitted:

"Some of us started playing the 19th hole before we finished the 18."

The low score of the day on the tough, tight course, whose heavy woods devour a lot of golf balls, was an 83 by Vern Thelen.

In most cases, Abbey Springs added at least 6 or 10 strokes to a golfer's average score elsewhere.

HOMER LaPLANTE won the low net prize with a 59 and Jay Dziki was second with a 60. Dr. Charles Solar won a handsome prize for winning the blind bogey event.

In the tennis competition, Pres Reckers and Bill

Stanley were the winners while Roger Broders, Cliff Houghton and Jack Fields won second place prizes.

A highlight of the day was when master of ceremonies Jim Fields got Morrie Pickus, though unprepared, to perform his usual role as Antioch's best stand-up comedian.

Another highlight came when host pro Biff Pancratz welcomed the Lions at dinner by saying:

"You're a great bunch and I'm glad to see you sober this year."

The First National Bank team won the championship in the Tuesday Night Businessmen's golf league at Spring Valley Country Club.

Members of the team were Art Bloss, Bob Jungkins, John Hedberg and Wally Ring.

Hedberg and Ring also were members of the Limerick No. 1 team which won the Thursday Night championship. Their teammates on Thursday were Dick Wolf, Wayne Swanson and Rich Higgins.

The Thursday Night league held a season-ending tournament and Wolf took low gross honors with a 77. Bill Erdman had low net with a 65. (Jerry Pfarr hit the ball disgustingly straight but didn't score well.)

THE UNSPONSORED golf league known as the Monday Nite Goofers (or is it Golfers?) ended the season with a "fun nite."

Chris Coolidge was first in A flight standings, with Jean Rockow second and Carolyn Blanchette third.

First in the B flight was Maryanne Kaht, with Diane Periman second and Phyllis Kapischke third.

The Goofers (Golfers?) will present trophies at a Sept. 12 banquet at Andre's Steak House.

Homan drives to victory in friend's car

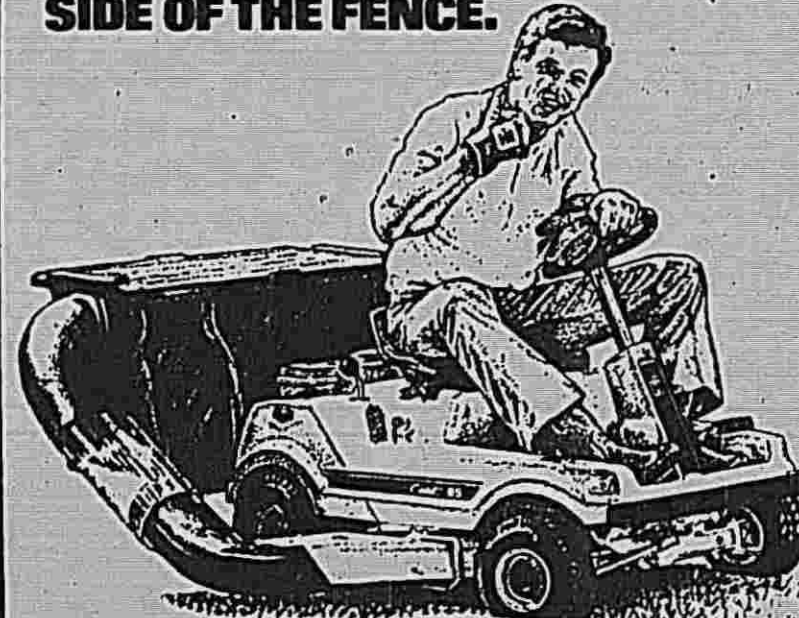

Tom Homan of Antioch drove his friend Don Collins' Barracuda to victory last Saturday at Waukegan Speedway in the 25-lap late model feature.

Collins was on his honeymoon, so teammate Homan got behind the wheel of No. 4.

Heat winner Bill Bain led the first nine circuits with Homan moving up slowly through the field. Homan took over top spot on lap 10 and went on to build a comfortable margin of victory.

Frank Dowell, Bain, Mike Frost and trophy dash victor Danny Brown rounded out the top five.

'911' system launched in Aurora area

A "911" emergency telephone system for Aurora and communities near that city has been put into effect.

Aurora Mayor John J. Hill said the system will cover 120 square miles with a population of 120,000, making it the largest "911" system in Illinois outside Chicago. Communities covered by the system include Aurora, Sugar Grove, North Aurora, Marywood, Moecherville, Montgomery, Oswego and South Park.

The 911 system in Antioch is right on schedule, according to Police Chief Chuck Miller.

When installed the system will enable persons in Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst to dial 911 on the telephone for police, fire and rescue squad emergency calls.

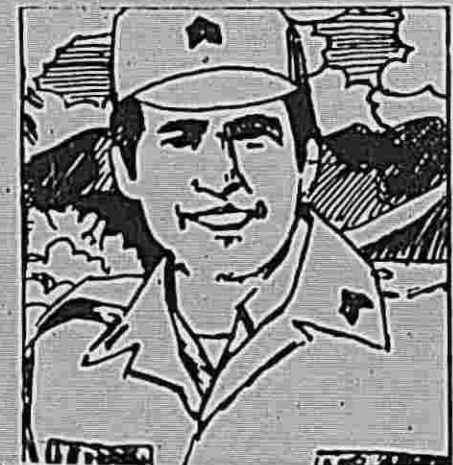

A hearing was held in Chicago before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Miller said there were no objections and the hearing "was completed in a few minutes."

"That gave us the legal clearing for the system," he added.

The village and the telephone company "are right on schedule," Miller added.
